METHODISTS WILL ORGANIZE A CONFERENCE

Many Noted Church Leaders to Attend Important Gathering in the Lead Avenue Church This Week.

One of the most important meetings in the history of the Methodist church in New Mexico will begin Wednesday in the Lead avenue church, corner of Third street and Lead avenue, to continue to Saturday and during which the New Mexico annual conference of the church will be organized. In the past the Spanish and English mission work of the church has been carried on under separate organizations. The work will be combined at this meeting and the organization changed from a mission, any way into a regular church conference.

Among the well known churchmen who will attend the meeting are Bishop Franklin J. McConnell of Denver, who will preside; Rev. William F. Oldham, of the Board of Foreign Missions, New York; Rev. Charles True Wilson, president of the Temperance society of the church, of Topeka; Rev. presbyterian D. Howard of the general board of church extension and home missions, of Philadelphia, and a number of other men well known in the national activities of the church.
